

St. Isidore Kindergarten and Preschool Dads:

Saturday, August 28th is the date for the annual 3-on-3 Basketball Tournament this year.

You may wonder why you're getting a letter in March about a tournament scheduled for August. In about a month, the 3-on-3 Committee will begin our preparations for this year's tournament. We are always searching for new people to volunteer for the tournament.

3-on-3 is a tournament for school kids between 3rd and 12th grades and is one of the biggest fund raising events for our school. The 3-on-3 Committee is a group of school dads that work together to solicit sponsors, arrange for t-shirts and concessions, court monitor the games, setup and take down tents, hoops, etc.

Even though it seems like the tournament "runs itself", the combined effort of all volunteers is the real reason the tournament is such a success.

Pat Frost and Ron Zygmunt are the co-chairs for the committee. We both have young children at St. Isidore school. Many committee members have older children who will eventually be moving on to high school, thus limiting their involvement. The continued success of the tournament is dependent on dads with younger children getting involved with the committee.

Whatever level of help you can provide will be appreciated. You could volunteer your time in preparation for the day of the tournament or just on the day of the tournament depending on your schedule. There is plenty to do.

Perhaps the company you work for could provide a service that would help the tournament run more efficiently, for instance one of the school dads works for a trucking company that provides a truck and two drivers to pickup the hoops we rent and also to drop them off again.

We have a lot of fun on the Committee and the group of guys we have is really a good group. You may know some of them:
